NEWS FROM THE 11TH WORLD SYMPOSIUM ON CHORAL MUSIC

We are happy to present you four more choirs selected to perform during the 11th World Symposium on Choral Music that will be held in Barcelona, on July 22-29, 2017. Stay tuned, as each IFCMeNEWS will reveal more about the artistic program of the WSCM11.

SONUX ENSEMBLE — Germany

The Sonux Ensemble is a young men's choir from Northern Germany, made up of the tenors and basses of the Chorknaben Uetersen. Their programs feature Renaissance, Baroque, and modern compositions, as well as titles from jazz, pop, and cross over repertoires. The choir specially focuses on the performance of contemporary works from commissioned musicians and the close collaboration with composers plays a vital role. Together with the chamber choir I Vocalisti, which also sings under the direction of Hans-Joachim Lustig, the ensemble gave a greatly acclaimed concert under the direction of the American composer and conductor Eric Whitacre in 2010. Stylistic open-mindedness is particularly important to the young singers and their director.

SALT LAKE VOCAL ARTISTS — USA

In its short history, the Salt Lake Vocal Artists has already become a well-respected and highly celebrated choral ensemble. They have entertained and fascinated local and international audiences with their versatility, passion, artistry and sound. Organized under the direction of Dr. Brady Allred in 2010, the Salt Lake Vocal Artists are the international ambassadors and touring choir for the Salt Lake Choral Artists organization now supporting seven choirs of singers from ages 8-80. The Salt Lake Vocal Artists are committed to bringing to life new and diverse choral works and have commissioned and premiered new works by celebrated international composers. Known internationally for "exquisite choral singing," Dr. Allred's ensembles have been invited to participate in major festivals and competitions around the world.

VOCAL ART ENSEMBLE — Sweden

Vocal Art Ensemble of Sweden has for decades been a powerful voice in the Swedish and international choir community, not least appreciated for its commitment to contemporary music. Through the years Vocal Art Ensemble has been awarded several prizes at international choir competitions. With its many recordings and radio and TV appearances, the ensemble has been lauded both domestically and internationally. The choir has been awarded multiple grants from the Swedish state (Kulturrådet) and uses those grants to commission new choral music. The musical collaboration of Vocal Art Ensemble and the conductor Jan Yngwe is based on the conviction of the power and necessity of music in an increasingly technocratic society, a belief in music as an opportunity and a tool to reach a multidimensional and deeper understanding of our existence and of life.

IN BRIEF – MEMBER NEWS

LET'S JOIN OUR VOICES TO BREAK THE SILENCE OF POVERTY

To celebrate the courage and efforts of people living in poverty throughout history, featuring their songs of resistance and hope in shows and concerts.

On October 17, 1987, answering to the call of action of Joseph Wresinski, founder of ATD (All together in Dignity) Fourth World, hundreds of choirs and singing groups took part in the day's events as part of a campaign called "100,000 voices for the voice-less". October 17 became the World Day for Overcoming Poverty. 2017 will mark the 30th anniversary of this call to action, the 60th anniversary of the founding of ATD Fourth World, and the 100th anniversary of the birth of Joseph Wresinski, a man born himself into extreme poverty.

To commemorate the occasion, ATD Fourth World is inviting any choir or singing group interested in celebrating the dignity of people living in poverty to organize one or several concerts between February and October 2017

The theme of the World Day for Overcoming Poverty in 2017 is: "Responding to the Call of October 17 to Eliminate Poverty: a Path to More Peaceful and Inclusive Societies."
