NEWS FROM THE 11TH WORLD SYMPOSIUM ON CHORAL MUSIC

BARCELONA, 22 - 29 JULY 2017

Have you reserved your place to hear some of the world's greatest choirs in one of the world's most beautiful cities?

Discover the "Circle Concerts" of the WSCM11!

The Barcelona Symposium has special characteristics making it different from past Symposia. Barcelona, capital of the Mediterranean, open to the sea and with an important historic heritage opens the Symposium to the city and to Catalonia. The choirs selected will perform not only for the symposium participants, but also for the choral music fans, with concerts open to the public in different locations of Barcelona and its surroundings. However, there is more! and that is why the Barcelona Symposium will incorporate a new way for Choirs from all around the world to participate: Choirs which have not been selected or Choirs interested in participating actively in lectures and in performing. These choirs will also join the symposium musical ambiance offering concerts in the special CIRCLE CONCERTS that will be included in the official program of the WSCM11 and the 52nd International Festival of Choral Singing of Barcelona.

PONOMARYOV VESNA CHILDREN'S CHOIR – Russia

Conducted by Nadezhda Averina, this is the Senior choir of Ponomaryov VESNA Children's Choir School (Moscow, Russia). "Vesna" is a choir distinguished by the originality of its creative approach, a refined taste, impeccable singing technique, inimitable on-stage expression and in-depth interpretation. It is a singing ensemble known for being an artistic benchmark for the modern choir art as performed by children. This is a community that for five decades has been giving its listeners a gift of happiness and joy through its spring-like art.

I MUVRINI – Corsica

I Muvrini is a French (Corsica) regional vocal group formed in the late 70s around Alain and Jean-François Bernardini. They were one of the most exposed bands of their kind throughout their long career, and worked with many French and foreign artists such as Sting, Luz Casal, Mc Solaar or Véronique Samson (among many others). From 1979 to 2007, the band released around thirty albums, both studio and live ones, their 2007 "I Muvrini et les 500 choristes" being their seventh Gold Record since 1994. Their style evolved from the most traditional forms of Corsica's "polyphonies" to more pop tones, though they never forgot their native language at any time.

JYVÄSKYLÄN NAISLAULAJAT - Finland

Jyväskylä Female Choir (JyväskylänNaislaulajat) conducted by Rita Varonen is one of the top female choirs in Finland both in terms of skills and activity. Youthful and energetic, the choir is a musical home for 40 women who share a love for music with a healthy artistic ambition. In the spring of 2015 the choir presented a very interesting program which was presented for the 70th anniversary festival concert of the Finnish Female Choir Association in the Sibelius Hall in Lahti, Finland and the CantaRode Choral Festival and Competition in the Netherlands. They were ranked as the best female choir and voted fourth of all competitors.

VIVA! YOUTH SINGERS OF TORONTO – Canada

VIVA! Youth Singers of Toronto is a vibrant, innovative choral organization for singers aged four through young adults, whose mandate is to offer the opportunity to achieve artistic excellence in a singer-centred, inclusive community. Founded by Carol Woodward Ratzlaff in 2000, VIVA! is comprised of five choirs who, in addition to performing high-level choral music, engage in various skill-building, music-making and dramatic activities. The choirs present two series of concerts annually in Toronto. Recognized for its Canadian commissions and diverse programming, VIVA! has appeared onstage as guest artists at many major Toronto concert venues with leading performers and ensembles.

Stay tuned as we will present four other choirs of the “Circle Concerts” in the next IFCMeNEWS!

EUROPEAN CHORAL ASSOCIATION - EUROPA CANTAT (ECA-EC)

The Voice of Singing Europe heard in Brussels

Did you know that there are 37 million people in Europe who practice collective singing?

On January 23rd 2017 the European Choral Association – Europa Cantat (ECA-EC) and the Representation of the State of Hessen co-organised the event “The Voice of Singing Europe” in the seat of the Representation in Brussels.

After welcome words by Friedrich von Heusinger (Director of the Representation of the State of Hessen to the European Union) and Gábor Móczár (President of ECA-EC), the youth choir of the Monnaie, La Choroline, conducted by Benoît Giaux demonstrated to the audience how singing together can bring joy to the singers as well as to the listeners.

Sonja Greiner, Secretary General ECA-EC then presented the “Singing Europe study” (<http://www.singingeurope.org/>) which was developed in the frame of the VOICE project (<http://www.thevoiceproject.eu/>), funded by the EU Culture Programme and selected as “success story” by the European Commission. The audience could directly experience the power of collective singing by learning the canon “Viva la Musica” with Carlo Pavese, Vice-President of the European Choral Association – Europa Cantat, before Sonja Greiner invited Barbara Gessler (Head of Unit, Creative Europe Programme – Culture, General Directorate for Education and Culture) on stage to

VALE CHRISTIAN LJUNGGREN

It is with great sadness that we inform you that former IFCM Secretary General, Christian Ljunggren passed away on February 4, 2017, just a few days after his 75th birthday. Christian was conductor of the Adolf Fredrik Madrigal Choir for more than 50 years, and the Nicolai Chamber Choir since 1974. He was the first president of the Swedish Choral Directors Association (1986-1998) and president of KÖRSAM (1997-2004). He organized the 2nd IFCM World Symposium on Choral Music in Stockholm in 1990, a symposium that many still remember, and was IFCM Secretary General 1997-1999. The choral world lost one of its biggest supporters and most devoted servants. RIP Christian.

(the April issue of the ICB will include a longer obituary by Interkultur of which Christian was the Honorary President)
