IFCM YOUTH ARTS MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

Presented by the American Choral Directors Association

August 15 – 31, 2016 Nassau, Bahamas

The world is full of musicians, therefore it is full of music events of many kinds: large, medium, and small scale. These events have many aspects that should be taken into account in order for them to be successful: production, staging, communications, PR, fundraising, finances, outreach, and many others. The International Federation for Choral Music (IFCM) and the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) have thoroughly designed a training program for young managers aged 18 to 30, who are motivated to learn and to develop their skills in international event management so they can go back to their home countries with the tools needed to organize choir and music festivals and events. More info and application form on America-cantat.org or by email to mcprieto@gmail.com

CONDUCTORS WITHOUT BORDERS

During the last training session of the project 'Conductors Without Borders' held in Kinshasa (5-11 October), the Organizational Committee of the festival Africa Cantat met with Thierry Thiebaut (A Coeur Joie International) and Sonja Greiner (European Choral Association — Europa Cantat) under the presidency of Jean-Sébastien Masiala (Congolese Federation for Choral Music), confirmed the dates for 2017 (6-12 August), and approved the shape of the program.

In Ghana, the first session 'Conductors Without Borders' including a two-day mission at the Valley View University of Accra and at the University of Education of Winneba was organized under the direction of Karen Cooksey (University of Kentucky in Lexington, USA).

This year has seen the project 'Conductors Without Borders' continue to grow in Senegal, Ivory Coast, Ghana, Cameroon, Gabon and DR Congo.

THE WORLD CHORAL DAY 2015

The date for the celebration of World Choral Day has been set for December 13, 2015. The theme for this year's celebration is "Integration". EXPO Milan 2015 – A GREAT SHOWCASE FOR CHORAL MUSIC

After 6 months, on October 31 the EXPO event in Milan, Italy, was completed. During the Universal Exposition the big project related to choral music, named "Feeding Souls, Thanking for Food", involved 36 Choirs from around the world. The selected choirs performed in the Italian Pavilion and in the Lombardy region in 181 performances over a 6-month period to an audience of more than 70,000 people and totaled more than 90 hours of choral music excellence. The project was implemented by IFCM, Feniarco and Jubilate Music Association, and involved also the Regional Federations for Choral music in Italy. As a result of this project, many people who had possibly never listened to choral music had the opportunity to hear and engage in this ancient Art-form in a meaningful and sometimes unexpected way. It was important that this IFCM activity was designed to culturally develop singers and conductors from around the world and also to engage the general public. NEWS FROM IFCM FOUNDING MEMBERS

NORDKLANG16 AUGUST 3-7, 2016 IN TURKU, FINLAND

The Nordklang Festival is organized under the umbrella of Nordisk Korforum every three years in one of the Nordic countries. The event brings together singers from all the Nordic countries to sing, learn and network.

Nordklang16 will offer a large variety of workshops for singers of all kinds of choirs.

Among others:

Opera! To Life! – Elin Persson (for intermediate to very difficult level)

Love opera? Always wanted to sing some of the greatest opera choruses? If your answer is yes, this is the workshop for you. Elin Persson, chorus master of the Kristiansund Opera in Norway, will lead you into the world of opera. You will have the chance to sing choruses from Mozart's

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION FOR CHORAL MUSIC monthly electronic newsletter

Enchanted Flute, Donizetti's Lucia di Lammermoor and Wagner's Lohengrin, to name only a few. So, puff out your chest, sing a few glorious high notes in your shower and put your name down for an operatic experience!

Elin Persson has years of experience in choral conducting, as she has managed and conducted choirs for more than thirty years. In her Nordklang16 workshop, Ms Persson hopes to be able to give the singers something from the diversity of opera and musical theatre – living the music and the story, as the text is as important in music as the music itself. The singers will sing of love, passion and the hope of the future.

Romantic Works for Mixed Choir – Carsten Seyer-Hansen (higher level of difficulty)

In the major a cappella choral works of the 19th century we are at the heart of the European choral tradition. Enjoy works by Niels W. Gade, Johannes Brahms, Felix Mendelssohn and Max Reger under the direction of Carsten Seyer-Hansen, Danish cantor, pedagogue and conductor.

Carsten Seyer-Hansen is the cantor at Aarhus Cathedral and responsible for the rich choral life at the cathedral, and a lecturer in classical choir conducting in the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Aarhus. Mr Seyer-Hansen is also the Artistic Director of the project Sangkraft Aarhus, the objective of which is to enhance singing among children and youth in eastern Jutland.

IN BRIEF – MEMBER NEWS

13TH CHINA INTERNATIONAL CHORUS FESTIVAL, 26 JULY-4 AUGUST 2016, BEIJING, CHINA

Founded in 1992, China International Chorus Festival (CICF) is currently the only state-level international chorus festival in China approved by the state council. As the largest-scale and highest-level international chorus festival in China, CICF is a cultural activity held every other year, which brings choirs from the country and abroad together to sing. CICF plays an important role in improving performance level of the participating choruses and promoting cultural exchanges between China and other countries. According to the statistics, in the past 12 festivals, the number of participating choirs has exceeded 1000 and more than 47,000 choir members were involved.

During "Building a harmonious world together for the future---Peace and Friendship", performers from different regions, countries and nationalities will sing for peace and friendship, express their happiness and desire for peace, spread friendship and love throughout the world. CICF combines art competitions with cultural exchange and performance.

For more detailed information, please contact: Ms. Gertrude Yuan at cicbfj@163.com

NEWS FROM INTERKULTUR

New non-competitive event series ON STAGE will start in 2016 in 12 European destinations. Program will include performances and pedagogical elements. Details on <http://onstage.interkultur.com>

VOLUNTEERS

Do you want to join with others around the globe in volunteer work for the IFCM? The IFCM is currently compiling a database of people such as you who wish to have their name included for consideration for assistance in various choral projects throughout the world, as they are required. The process is simple. Just send a CV, a photo, and any suggestion of ways you might be able to help us to leonardifra@yahoo.it. Please write "Volunteer's database" in the subject line of your email, and preferably send your material in English.

Remember the IFCM slogan "Volunteers connecting our choral world" - come and join us in our work!

SHARE YOUR IMPORTANT CHORAL NEWS WITH THE WORLD!

The IFCMeNEWS wants to hear what's new in your country so that it can be shared with our global community. If you have news or photographs of international interest, please visit the IFCM web site to see the new guidelines for contributions to the IFCMeNEWS. Submissions are free to IFCM members!
