IFCM OPENS NEW MAIN OFFICE IN LISBON, PORTUGAL

February 14 was more than Valentine's Day this year. It was the day of the official opening of Palacete dos Condes de Monte Real with a ceremony dedicated to the theme "Love and Harmony". Constructed in the Lapa district of Lisbon between 1916 and 1918 as the residence of the Counts of Monte Real, the extraordinary palace is now the new headquarters of the International Federation for Choral Music. As the International Cultural Center, the facility will feature a wide range of cultural and artistic activities. The ribbon-cutting ceremony was attended by leaders in the Lisbon arts community, Government officials, foreign diplomats from numerous embassies, business entrepreneurs, IFCM ExCom and Board members.

Purchased and renovated by IFCM President, Emily Kuo, the restoration of the palace maintained the building's characteristic elements: interior woodcarvings of Leandro Braga, Brazilian wood floors, and a remarkable collection of tiles, many salvaged from buildings demolished during the 1755 earthquake. Complete with a private chapel dedicated to Our Lady of the Conception, the palace is a concert venue, a dining facility, an exhibition space, and a work space with multiple rooms for offices and board meetings. The IFCM ExCom and board members were thrilled to attend their first meetings in this extraordinary space. The inaugural choral event at Palacete dos Condes de Monte Real will be the World Choral EXPO, July 27-August 1, 2019.

Special thanks to President Emily for her vision, her perseverance, and her welcoming IFCM "to live and work" in this exceptional building. When in Lisbon, IFCM members are encouraged to visit the Palacete dos Condes de Monte Real which has been lovingly restored for the "preservation and dissemination of the arts, culture and music".

WORLD CHORAL EXPO, LISBON, PORTUGAL, 27 JULY - 1 AUGUST 2019“Voices Meeting for a Better World”

The IFCM World Choral EXPO aims to provide an opportunity for choral singers, choral professionals, conductors, composers and music educators to interact with and learn from world-renowned choirs and their conductors. The 2019 theme – Voices Meeting for a Better World – encourages global friendship, cultural understanding, and world peace. With a common love for choral music, performers, participants, exhibitors and sponsors will gather to make lifelong friendships and to inspire musicians, regardless of technical level. The EXPO will take place in Lisbon, Portugal, July 27-August 1, 2019. The EXPO will feature numerous concerts throughout Lisbon and its surrounding cities, presented by participant choirs and leading choral ensembles of the highest quality from different continents. One of the gala concerts, the Colorful Voices Program, will be dedicated to the music of children and youth choirs with an extraordinary variety of artistic proposals, presenting young artists performing at the highest level. Participating choirs and individuals may choose to work with and/or observe international choral experts. Unique touring opportunities will be available. Come and be a part of this superb choral event. Experience choral arts at its finest and make new singing friends in spectacular Lisbon.

SURVEY ON WORLD CHORAL DAY

Since 1990 World Choral Day has always been one of the key projects of International Federation for Choral Music (IFCM), an international choral event to extol the values of solidarity, peace and understanding on a global level. In 2018 the project was raised to another level in terms of communication and design which resulted in a record number of events registered and most countries represented ever. We kindly ask you to help us with your personal thoughts and feelings to make World Choral Day even better in the future by filling this short survey! Please fill the form the latest until 15 of March!

Thank you very much for your contribution!
