WORLD CHORAL DAY 2018 | JOIN WITH YOUR EVENT

Would you like to join a global choral event with your choir? And share your love for choral singing with thousands of other choirs from all around the globe? Then the very special 2018 iteration of World Choral Day is just for you!

In 2018 we commemorate the ending of World War I and begin to celebrate peace by holding choral concerts from the emblematic day of November 11th until December 16th, so if you're planning to organize a concert in that space of time, let the whole world know about it! Any choir and any choral event can become part of the global chain; all you have to do is register your event at <http://worldchoralday.org/subscription/> any time between now and December 16th, it only takes a few minutes. Even though the end of the project is two months away there are already plenty of choral events registered from more than 25 different countries representing all 5 continents.

SINGERS AROUND THE WORLD ARE PARTICIPATING IN THE VOXPOPULI VIRTUAL CHOIR

On the 100th Anniversary of the official end of World War I, singers around the world will give a message of peace through the VoxPopuli Virtual Choir.

A virtual choir is formed of videos sent by individual singers who record themselves while singing their correspondent section of a selected choral work. The selected material is combined to create an audio-visual final product. VoxPopuli Virtual Choir will sing the work "Nada te turbe" by Venezuelan composer Carlos Cordero, winner work of VoxPopuli Category (Audience award) in the 1st International Choral Composition Competition "Alberto Grau" (CICCAG) promoted by Aequalis Foundation, a non-profit institution based in Caracas, Venezuela. Ana María Raga will be the conductor of this special choir.

We join the International Federation for Choral Music (IFCM) to celebrate the World Choral

Day, an initiative of Alberto Grau when he was IFCM Vice President for Latin America. Singers from Venezuela, Argentina, México, Colombia, Ecuador, USA, Poland, Russia, Spain, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Turkey, United Kingdom, among other countries, are participating in this project.

The final virtual performance will be released through all digital media as a celebration of World Choral Day.

12TH WORLD SYMPOSIUM ON CHORAL MUSIC (WSCM2020)

Applications have just closed for Choirs and Presenters to be part of official programme of the 12th World Symposium on Choral Music, to be held in Auckland, New Zealand, 11-18 July 2020.

The global flagship event of the International Federation for Choral Music (IFCM), this festival/congress is a magnificent showcase of many of the world's finest choirs. The theme of WSCM2020, "People and the Land – the connection and tensions between people and land, between urban life and the nature world", provides an exciting opportunity for choirs from all over the world to share their stories, identities, beliefs, and traditions. The Auckland Symposium organising team wishes to thank the many choirs and presenters who have submitted a huge range of ideas for concerts, seminars, workshops and demonstrations. An intense six weeks now follows for the Artistic Committee, with selected participants to be advised in mid-December, and the programme officially launched at the end of February when registrations open. Watch this space for more details! Preregister now at wscm2020.com or follow facebook.com/wscm2020

OBITUARY: GRANT HUTCHINSON

The choral community is mourning the death of New Zealand Choral Federation CE Grant Hutchinson. He was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer in July and died on October 12, surrounded by family. Grant was appointed CE of the Choral Federation in 2008, holding the position for a decade. Grant's contribution to NZCF has been immense. As leader of the organisation for the past decade, he has dedicated himself tirelessly to choral music in Aotearoa. Originally from South Africa, he settled in Waikato briefly, before moving to Christchurch and became the music director of Jubilate Singers. During his time with NZCF he helped to reinstate funding for the organisation, revive the Association of Choral Directors, instigate the NZCF Rugby World Cup 2011 Anthems Project and establish an Asia-Pacific Council to promote choral music. Grant was known for his infectious enthusiasm, humility, hard-working attitude and his honesty. NZCF says on its website that he was "a true colleague and a genuinely nice man". On a more global front, Grant was one of the early movers in setting up an Asia-Pacific Council to promote choral music in the region. Moreover, his reports from IFCM events he attended in Seoul and Macau were instrumental in encouraging NZCF to apply for the 2020 World Symposium on Choral Music. IFCM President and Board members are expressing their deepest gratitude and heartfelt condolences to his wife and children.

A choral tribute and farewell was given to Grant Hutchinson on October 22.

NEWS FROM IFCM MEMBERS

12TH EUROPEAN FESTIVAL OF YOUTH CHOIRS BASEL, SWITZERLAND, 19-24 MAY 2020Application deadline January 31st, 2019

The EFYC ranges among the most important meetings for highly qualified children's and youth choirs in the world. Every two years in May (Ascension) ten outstanding choirs from European countries, one guest choir from a non-European country and seven selected choirs from Switzerland thrill an audience of over 30,000 concert-goers in more than 40 events such as themed concerts, lunch concerts, open singing sessions for the general public, open-air events, church services and country portraits. The performances presenting classical choir music, jazz, pop and rock arrangements, gospels and spirituals, folk songs and traditional costumes as well as the creative use of sounds and movements ensure unforgettable experiences for everyone. Apart from the high-quality music, the festival focuses on the youngsters' interaction among themselves as well as with the locals. All singers are hosted in guest families in the region of Basel. Meeting opportunities for choral professionals and students, education projects in choral conducting, special projects to develop new choral music and animation projects for amateur singers complement the official festival program. The festival covers all costs of the invited choirs. Apply now for an invitation!
